Employee Spotlight of the Month

Assistant caregiver Loyd Green joined The Villas last year, bringing with him a unique background. Growing up in the United Kingdom, Loyd was greatly influenced by his “nan,” a nurse who worked with memory care patients, which inspired his own path in caregiving. As a child, Loyd dreamed of working with horses as an equine nutritionist or becoming a real estate agent.

Now at The Villas, Loyd finds joy in the stories residents share with him, saying, “Every day is a special encounter because we always laugh and enjoy doing arts and crafts any chance we get.” He also loves watching shows together and playing UNO with the residents. In his free time, Loyd enjoys hiking and training his horses, and he hopes to work with animals in the future. Currently at home, he cares for his numerous pets which include 3 dogs, 5 horses, a snake, and a bird, reflecting his passion for animals.

Creating & Inspiring in the Neighborhood

Paula Been grew up in Omaha, Nebraska and still smiles at the memory of those carefree days when life was about family and fun. Paula adored her parents, and credits the deep impact they had on her life. Her childhood was filled with joyful times spent with her brother and sister, often playing with their favorite toys. Over time, Paula has gained a wealth of wisdom, advising others to embrace patience—something she believes has been key to her happiness. The happiest day of Paula’s life, she says, was the day her son, Corey, was born. From that moment on, he became her greatest source of pride.

Now at The Villas, Paula finds joy in her community. The art activities in Villa C are her favorite, and she always looks forward to creating alongside her neighbors, eager to learn and share. Paula also enjoys playing games and attending occupational therapy sessions that help keep her mind and body active. Paula’s delightful personality and kind spirit make her a beloved part of The Villas. Be sure to join her at the next art activity—you’ll surely enjoy getting to know this lovely neighbor!
